

F# Minor. Moore's Columbian Harmony, 1825.

William Moore, 1825.

1. Come, Chris-tians, be val-iant, our Je - sus is near us, We'll con-quer the pow-ers of dark-ness and sin;

2. We've tri - als and loss-es and hard-ships and cross-es, But heav-en will pay us for all that we bear;

3. Young con-verts, be hum-ble, your pros-pects are bloom-ing, The wings of kind an-gels a-round you are spread,

Through grace and the spir - it, we'll glo - ry in - her - it, While peace, like a riv - er, gives com-fort with - in. 1. -in 2.

'Twill soon end in pleas - ure and glo - ry for - ev - er, And bright crowns of glo - ry in heav-en we'll wear. wear. 1. 2.

While some are op-press - ed with sor-row and suf-fr'ing, The spir - it of joy up-on you he hath shed. shed. 1. 2.
